

Your Classmate lent
you a pencil.

Someone shared their lunch with you when you forgot yours.

A friend invited you
to join their game.

A teacher stayed after school to help you.

Someone stood up for you
when someone else was being unkind.

Someone helped you understand a difficult
homework problem.

A classmate always listens carefully when you talk and support your ideas during group work.

The school janitor keeps your classroom clean and comfortable all day.

A teammate encouraged you during a tough game.

A classmate cleaned up the classroom without being asked.

Someone gave you a compliment that made you feel confident.

A sibling or family member helped you with a chore at home.

A classmate included you in a group project when you didn't know who to work with.

Someone helped you find your way around school or reminded you of your schedule.

A classmate shared notes or explained what you missed when you were absent.

A coach/club leader noticed your effort and encouraged you to keep trying, even when something was challenging.
