

Congratulations!

We are thrilled to share some exciting news. Your child has been selected to be a member of our Little Aavidum club! This is a special honor, and we are so proud to invite your child to take on this meaningful leadership role within our school community. Being selected for Little Aavidum means that teachers and school staff see something special in your child, not only in what they accomplish, but in the way they treat the people around them.

What Is Little Aavidum?

Aavidum is a student-led movement built around a simple but powerful message: "I've got your back." At the elementary level, Little Aavidum focuses on helping create a school where every student feels accepted, appreciated, acknowledged, and cared for. Little Aavidum members will have opportunities to model kindness, welcome others, encourage inclusion, spread positive messages, and help create a school community where everyone feels like they belong.

Students will also learn that being a leader isn't always about standing in front of a room or having the loudest voice. Sometimes leadership looks like noticing someone who is sitting alone, inviting someone to join, listening when a friend needs to talk, or choosing kindness when it isn't the easiest choice.

Why Was Your Child Selected?

Your child was selected because our faculty recognizes qualities in them that we believe will make them a wonderful Little Aavidum leader. Perhaps your child has a way of making others feel welcome, noticing when someone needs a friend, or consistently showing kindness and empathy. Perhaps they are a natural leader who encourages others or their positive attitude seems to spread to the people around them. Being chosen for Little Aavidum is an opportunity for your child to use the qualities they already possess to make our school an even more caring place.

What Will Little Aavidum Members Do?

Throughout the year, students will learn and practice ways to:

- Help classmates feel welcome and included
- Recognize and appreciate the people around them
- Use their words and actions to encourage others
- Build stronger friendships and connections
- Plan activities and initiatives that spread the Aavidum message
- Be positive role models for their classmates
- Notice when someone may need support
- Know when to involve a trusted adult when something feels too big to handle alone

A Special Responsibility

Being selected for Little Aavidum is something to be proud of, but it also comes with responsibility. Our Little Aavidum members will be encouraged to think about how their words, choices, and actions affect others. They will be asked to help create a club where everyone feels respected and valued and to carry that same spirit throughout the school. We hope your child will discover that leadership isn't about having all the answers, but rather caring enough to make a difference. And we believe your child has already shown us that they care.

Thank you!

Thank you for supporting your child as they take on this special role. We are honored to have them represent our school and can't wait to see the difference they make.

Congratulations to your child on being selected for Little Aavidum and thank you for gifting our school community with the presence of a child who consistently embodies the "I've got your back" message.

Sincerely,
